

On October 19th, the Embassy hosted the Okinawa folk songs and Reggae joint mini-concert at Ambassador' s official residence.

Like the concert on the 18th, "Utakata Project" performed Okinawa folk songs and Ymai Bolo performed reggae, with dragging the audience in and creating a great atmosphere.

About 110 people attended, including President of the senate, Hon. Thomas Tavares-Finson as the guest of honor, Minister of Industry, Investment and Commerce, Hon. Audyn Hill, Chinese, Indian, French, German, Brazilian, Mexican, Belgian and EU Ambassadors/ High Commissioner and other members of the diplomatic corps, Japanese residents, and a renowned reggae singer, Tony Rebel.
